

1. Information: Jeremy Kemp comes as a candidate for licensure. He is a member in good standing of Christ Community Presbyterian Church in Lakeland, Florida, where he serves as student ministry director. He has completed an internship as a candidate under care of SWFL Presbytery. He was examined in accordance with BCO 19-2.

Actions from Committee - M/S/C:

- To sustain his exam in Christian experience and Call to ministry.
- To sustain his exam in Theology.
- To sustain his exam in English Bible.
- To sustain his exam in BCO/Church government
- To approve his sermon

2. Information: Justin Woodall comes as a transfer candidate from Palmetto Presbytery, where he is an ordained teaching elder in good standing. He is being called by Westtown Church in Tampa, Florida. He was examined in accordance with BCO 13-6.

Actions from Committee - M/S/C:

- To sustain his exam in Christian experience and Call to ministry.
- To sustain his exam in Theology.
- To sustain his exam in Sacraments .
- To sustain his exam in BCO/Church government.
- To approve his terms of call from Westtown Church

3. Information: Stan McMahan comes as a licentiate in SWFL Presbytery and a Ruling Elder of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Lakeland, Florida, where he is a member in good standing. He was examined in accordance with BCO 21-4 for ordination.

Actions from Committee - M/S/C:

- To sustain his exam in Sacraments.
- To sustain his exam in Church history
- To sustain his exam in PCA history.
- To accept his theological paper.
- To accept his exegetical paper.
- To sustain his exam in PCA history.
- To accept his seminary transcript in lieu of an exam in original languages.
- To approve his terms of call from Trinity Presbyterian Church pending receipt.

April 21, 2014

Please see attachments for candidate's Personal Information Form, Theological Conviction Statements, along with any exceptions to our Standards. In addition, terms of call, if applicable, are also attached.

Respectfully submitted -

TE Jonathan Winfree