

1. Information: Jeremy Kemp comes as a candidate for ordination. He is currently licensed in SWFL Presbytery as well as a member in good standing of Christ Community Presbyterian Church in Lakeland, Florida, where he serves as student ministry director. He was examined in accordance with BCO 21-4.

Actions from Committee - M/S/C:

- To sustain his exam in Sacraments.
- To sustain his exam in Church history
- To sustain his exam in PCA history.
- To accept his theological paper.
- To accept his exegetical paper.
- To approve his terms of call from Christ Community Presbyterian Church

2. Information: John Larson comes as a transfer candidate from Georgia Foothills Presbytery, where he is an ordained teaching elder in good standing. He is being called by Holy Trinity Presbyterian Church in Tampa, FL. He was examined in accordance with BCO 13-6.

Actions from Committee - M/S/C:

- To sustain his exam in Christian experience and Call to ministry.
- To sustain his exam in Theology.
- To sustain his exam in Sacraments .
- To sustain his exam in BCO/Church government.
- To approve his differences with the standards as more than semantic, but not striking at the fundamentals of our system of doctrine.
- To approve his terms of call from Holy Trinity Presbyterian Church

Please see attachments for candidate's Personal Information Form, Theological Conviction Statements, along with any differences to our Standards. In addition, terms of call, if applicable, are also attached.

Respectfully submitted -

TE Jonathan Winfree